

Idaho Turner Syndrome Foundation

Who We Are:

We are a passionate and dedicated local non-profit organization committed to supporting and empowering Idahoans affected by Turner Syndrome. Our mission is to create a community where individuals with Turner Syndrome and their families can find solace, resources, and guidance to navigate the challenges associated with this condition.

Whether you are seeking medical resources, financial assistance for out-of-state medical travel, or emotional support, we are here for you. Our team of compassionate volunteers and professionals work tirelessly to raise awareness, provide education, and advocate for the needs of those living with Turner Syndrome in Idaho.
